SMART MOVES

Sellers should do the prep work

By Ellen James Martin

After spending more than two decades editing BTV, a sales manager for his family's real estate retail, he's learned to value the importance of his customers more than the money.

But with more and more people who are as a result of "Home Makeovers that Fail" and other books on real estate, it's become even more important to take the time to make a house market-worthy.

"If you've been true to your values, you'll end up with a different price," he says.

"When you have a look, you're asking, 'What can I do with this?'" he says.

"When you have a look, you're
asking, 'What can I do with this?'" he says.

"When you have a look, you're
asking, 'What can I do with
this?'" he says.
The Open House is a great opportunity to tour the home and learn more about its features. The home is built with high-quality materials and is designed for both comfort and energy efficiency. It includes many modern amenities, such as a state-of-the-art kitchen, a spacious living area, and a beautiful outdoor space. The Open House will be held from 1-4 PM on Saturday, October 20th, and it is free and open to the public. We hope to see you there!