Where Light, Landscape, and Architecture Align This home blends clean geometry, intentional light, and natural materials to create a living space that feels both grounded and elevated. Every element is purposeful, inviting nature in while offering privacy and serenity. Expanses of glass blur the boundary between indoors and out, while the open yet defined layout supports modern living with flow, flexibility, and function. This is a home designed for those who appreciate the architecture of stillness, the quiet power of space, proportion, and clarity. A rare opportunity to own a piece of NC's design legacy, beautifully suited for both everyday life and extraordinary moments AGENT'S LISTING ARCHITECT'S INFO
